Name: _____ Grade: 2 _____ Date: _____

INSTRUCCIONES: READ THE TEST AND ANSWER THE ACTIVITIES RELATED TO VICTOR JARA.

Víctor Lidio Jara Martínez, better known as Victor Jara (born September 28, 1932, Lonquén, Chile—died September 16, 1973, Santiago), Chilean folksinger, one of the pioneers of the "nueva canción" genre of politically charged popular songs. His political activism led to his torture and execution by the regime of the Chilean dictator Agusto Pinochet.

Jara was raised in poverty by a farmer father and a folksinger mother. He left school at age 15 to prepare for the priesthood but gave up his clerical studies to join the army, from which he was honourably discharged after a year of service. Jara then studied theatre at the University of Chile. Upon his graduation he began working as a stage director, a pursuit he continued even after his singing career took off.
